Dear Jim,

When I was in Washington I asked an old friend who has a travel bureau about the flights.

He is reserving passge for me on 6/10, American flight 603, arriving Dallas 1:05.

With this much lead time there should be no problem getting a seat.

The fare has not gone up as much as I thought, $114 each way or $228.

This will all be confirmed in writing after the holiday weekend.

It also is straight tourist.

Night flights would be a little cheaper but I'm no longer up to them.

I haste,
